House Passes Immigration Bill.

California Members Pleased with Clauses that Relate to the Japanese.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The House Immigration bill, with its literacy test and Asiatic exclusion provision unchanged, passed

the House late today by a vote of 219 to 191. It now goes to the Senate, where favorable action is regarded as certain.

The House voted against two amendments proposed by Representative Humphrey. One was to increase the $100,000 to $150,000 the authorized amount for enforcement of the contract labor law. The other was for a patrol of Puget Sound for detection of smugglers. Mr. Humphrey contended that the bill was "a piece of legislation for the sake of a Chinese."

He attacked the American government's arrangements with the Canadian Pacific Railway for handling Chinese immigrants.

"It is a disgrace to this nation,"

he said, "that the United States has no law partnership with the Canadian Pacific Railway, and in return that partnership agreement the Chinese are allowed to come in and take the jobs of our people."

KRUPP MAN ARRESTED.

Husband of Gadske Accused.

Hans Tauscher is Held in New York for Alleged Conspiracy Against Canada.

Plot to Destroy the Welland Canal is Disclosed by Supposed Spy.

Revelations Made by Von Goltz, it is Said, May Involve Several Others.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, March 30.—Capt.

Hans Tauscher, said to be an officer in the German navy and reputed to be the head of the Tauscher

Arms Company of this city, as well as the American representative of the

Krupp Gun Works, was arrested here

today by Federal authorities in a warrant charging conspiracy. Capt.

Tauscher is the husband of Johanna

Gadske, the grand opera singer.

The warrant was sworn to "on information and belief" by William M.

O'Brien, a special agent of the Department of Justice. The complaint also names Alfred A. Fritzen, who is not yet under arrest.

It is charged that Tauscher and Fritzen on August 15, 1914, set on foot a military enterprise to be carried on from the United States against the Dominion of Canada, for the purpose of destroying or damaging the Welland Canal. The defendants are said to have had four associates.

It also is alleged that the defendants obtained a large quantity of dynamite

and other explosives and that on or about September 14, 1914, all the defendants except Tauscher left New York carrying the dynamite in suit

cases and proceeded by rail to Niagara Falls. Sources of information on which the complaint is based are kept secret, for the stated reason that to disclose them would be contrary to policy.

BONDS ARE FIXED.

Tauscher was arrested at his office in this city and taken before United States Commissioner Haughton. He entered a plea of not guilty. He was held under a bond of $25,000 for examination on April 15.

TULARE, March 30.—Elated beyond words at the wonderful trip through the San Joaquin Valley, delighted at the opportunity afforded them by the Los Angeles Times and heartily appreciative of the generous hospitality shown them by the inhabitants of the progressive communities visited, the members of the excursion party tonight adopted the following expression of sentiment:

"We, the members of the Los Angeles Times San Joaquin Valley excursion, wish to thank the Times and its editor, Gen. Harrison Gray

Otis, for the splendid 'Seeing California' trip made possible by that great newspaper. Never, we are certain, have we received so much for so little on a sightseeing expedition.

"The excursion has been a revelation to us of the development

CLOSING IN ON VILLA; ADVICES TO FUNSTON.

Bandit, with Considerable Force, Located on the San Geronimo Ranch.

Reiterated Reports that the International Marauder has been Wounded—Mexican Informed in Advance of the Columbus Massacre Declares the Outlaw has Doubled on His Tracks and is Still Near the Border.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) March 30.—After killing every one of the 172 men in the garrison at Guerrero, Francisco Villa moved northward yesterday and now is somewhere near the head waters of the Santa Maria River, according to unofficial information secured by Gen. Funston tonight. At the head of a considerable force Villa was reported to be on the San Geronimo ranch or the Quemada ranch and troops of both the United States and Mexico were believed to be closing in on him.

This information was regarded by Gen. Funston and his staff as probably correct. If correct, it appeared probable that very soon

Villa either will have to face his pursuers in fight or make another break through the tightening line of troops.

Whether his assault on the garrison at Guerrero was the same engagement reported by Gen. Pershing was not known, but it was considered likely, since the action reported by Gen. Pershing occurred March 27, somewhere in that region.

Gen. Pershing has been advised of the report as to Villa's location and it is known that the disposition of his troops and those of the Mexican government are such that Villa cannot easily escape without a fight. American troops are converging in columns from the north and it was indicated that part of them had gone so far south that they would be able to join with the Carranza forces in preventing his escape in that direction.

EL PASO, March 30.—Gen. Gabriel Gavira, Carranza commander at Juarez, said tonight that he had received a message from Maders, Mex., which stated that Villa had been shot in the leg.

Gen. Gavira said the message came from what he considered a reliable source, but that he had wired Gen. Bertani at Maders for confirmation.

COLUMBUS (N. M.) March 30.—The reports tonight caused the credu-lity to fear that Villa was about to make a second raid on the community.

One story, which grew as it passed from mouth to mouth, was based on a suggestion made by Juan Fayela, a Mexican ranch hand employed by Mayor H. C. Hoover, who is said to have predicted the raid on this town

March 3. Fayela asserted that he believed that the bandit chieftain, with a small part of his band, had doubled

on his trail, and was now in the vicinity of Santa Maria, in the Guzman district, about sixty-five miles south of the border.

Close questioning by both military and civil authorities, however, elicited the fact that his belief was based on a newspaper story that Villa had turned to the north. Military authorities discredited the story.

On the heels of this story, a ranchman, whose name was not made public, reported to Maj. W. R. Sample, commandant, that he believed the actions of a Mexican family living about three miles from the town to be suspicious. He said that the lights in the windows on the south side of the house have been flashed in a way that might indicate they were signals.

However, despite repeated assurances by military authorities that last reports indicated that Villa was driving before American cavalrymen into the heart of the Guerrero district, knots

of armed men gathered in the streets

here tonight and speculated as to the possibility of a second raid on the town.

Suburbs of the City.Artillery Plays Heavily on North Front of Forts.French Hold Malancourt Only by a Narrow Margin.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE GERMAN CROWN PRINCE BEFORE VERDUN, March 30 (via London and Berlin, March 30, 1:34 p.m.)—German artillery is playing heavily on the north front of Verdun. Vast clouds of smoke mark the site of the burning suburb behind Fort Belleville and Froideferre, set afire by the bombardment of these forts, which has begun to take the city along the east bank of the Meuse.

Eight miles westward, across the river, a mass of smoke columns, floating like a haze of fire, is seen from the German front. The smoke is the result of the burning of the suburbs of Verdun, which are being shelled by the German artillery. The attack here has been going on since the middle of the month. The French have been holding the line, but the German artillery has been playing heavily on the north front of Verdun. The smoke is the result of the burning of the suburbs of Verdun, which are being shelled by the German artillery.

FRENCH DRIVEN BACK.
It was necessary to clear the French from this region before the German attack against the fortress could proceed. This has been accomplished. Of the old positions the French now hold only a narrow tongue of land between the German front and the French line. The French have been driven back from the old positions. The German artillery has been playing heavily on the north front of Verdun. The smoke is the result of the burning of the suburbs of Verdun, which are being shelled by the German artillery.

EVERY HOUSE A FORT.
An officer from the headquarters of the Crown Prince explained to the correspondent the operations leading to the occupation of the region west of the river. The French, positions here, from which the German operations on the east bank had been subjected to a flanking fire, were on the heights of the Goores ridge and the French front line. The French have been driven back from the old positions. The German artillery has been playing heavily on the north front of Verdun. Military Training in the United States.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, March 30.—Approximately 254,472 citizens of military age in the United States now outside the army have had military training. This estimate was transmitted today by the War Department to the Senate in response to a resolution. Adm. Gen. McCain reported 67,765 men passed out of the army after three years' service between 1906 and 1915. Of these 6595 were deserters or others who left without honorable discharges. There are 124,400 men who served and militarily during that period and 49,317 who were trained from some civil educational institution where they received instructions satisfactory to the War Department.

Attacks participating instead of a brigade of orders by Gen. Feltin. The Germans then carried Deadman's Hill.

ATTACK IS SHIFTED.
The attack here then ceased and was transferred to Avocourt wood. This attack succeeded in the first rush. The French now hold only the sack-like position two and a half miles north of the line of Deadman's Hill No. 304.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS representative was able today to survey the whole battle front near Verdun. The background of the panorama was the burning city of Verdun, with its smoky cathedral tower standing out from the smoke. The French have been driven back from the old positions. The German artillery has been playing heavily on the north front of Verdun. The smoke is the result of the burning of the suburbs of Verdun, which are being shelled by the German artillery.

Canadian Pacific Railway got this Chinese traffic. As a part of this agreement absolutely discreditable to the United States, the whole Pacific Coast service is placed under the Montreal office across the continent. Not only that, but the Montreal office now controls a separate formal inquiry on their own part. They asserted the best interests of all concerned would be best served by one investigation of the part of the representatives of the Ohio Utilities Commission and of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The railroad of course would give every help, they said, to make the investigation complete, and the railroad would abide by the findings of these bodies, whatever they are.

EMPLOYEES DISAGREE.
The inspecting of the signal block apparatus at Amherst was the main work of the government experts today. Taking a special train the investigators went to the scene of the wreck and inspected it thoroughly. The conductors of the railroad and employees centered about A. H. Ernst, 35, townman at Amherst, and Herman Hess, 45, veteran engineer, whose train was wrecked in the first section of train No. 84, causing the deaths of nearly all of those killed.

RECIPOCAL EXCLUSION.
During the debate today the Humphrey reciprocal exclusion amendment was adopted. It was a measure of reciprocal exclusion of skilled and unskilled labor from this and other foreign countries, was modified upon discovery that it operated against immigration from Russia. It was changed so as to make it applicable only to a "continuous" foreign country.

RECIPOCAL EXCLUSION.
Representative Bennett of New York read to the House a telegram from Louis Marshall of New York, pointing out that the amendment as originally adopted would interfere with the right of asylum and saying: "The Russian revolution is concerned, it will exclude him altogether because Russia has steadfastly refused to admit Jews to enter her domain, even though they bear American passports."

With a fierce controversy raging among railroad employees as to who was responsible for the accident, representatives of the State of Ohio and of the Federal government were told by officials of the New York Central lines that the railroad officials would not conduct a separate formal inquiry on their own part. RECIPOCAL EXCLUSION.
The literacy test as adopted, would exclude all aliens over 16 years old, physically capable of reading, who cannot read English or Scottish or persons already in this country and certain classes of refugees from religious persecution.

RECIPOCAL EXCLUSION.
Asiatic exclusion provisions especially bar Hindus and add to the excluded classes "persons who cannot become citizens of the United States by naturalization or otherwise provided for," by existing or future treaties, conventions or agreements.

RECIPOCAL EXCLUSION.
Pacific Coast members were satisfied with this provision, which gives legislative recognition to the existing so-called "gentlemen's agreement" with Japan for exclusion of Japanese laborers, and the committee advised the House that there was nothing offensive in the language to the Immigration Bureau, the State Department or to any government.

RECIPOCAL EXCLUSION.
Other provisions of the bill to extend and strengthen the laws regarding smuggling and harboring of inadmissible aliens, increase the penalties imposed on steamship companies for illegal aliens in concert with immigration laws, require such companies to repay passage expense to rejected aliens, double the head tax from four to eight dollars and impose restrictions designed to prevent alien seamen who leave their ships from remaining in this country.

Throughout the House debate, officials of the American Federation of Labor have been in the gallery and today they checked off the votes of members during the roll call.

Plans for Strong Reserve are Outlined to the House.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—A final review of the administration's program for the navy was given by Secretary Daniels, who will be the last witness heard before the committee begins framing its bill. The secretary outlined in several reports to the committee previously submitted to the committee. He stated the establishment of a government plant to manufacture armor plates, the estimate for the fiscal year 1917, $11,000,000; asked for $10,000,000 for the fiscal year 1918, and proposed that civilian engineers be placed at the head of the nonmilitary departments of the navy. He also outlined the plan to build a new shipyard at the Washington Navy Yard, and to build a new shipyard at the Mare Island Navy Yard, California. He also outlined the plan to build a new shipyard at the Mare Island Navy Yard, California. He also outlined the plan to build a new shipyard at the Mare Island Navy Yard, California.

SEAMEN ON BORDER.
An outline of the department's plan to build up an adequate force for the navy was presented by the secretary. It provides for five classes of seamen. The first, to be known as the "first class," would be composed of former officers and enlisted men; the second, or naval reserve, of officers and men of the merchant marine; the third, or naval auxiliary, of shipmasters and seamen; the fourth, or naval reserve, of former officers and enlisted men; the fifth, or naval auxiliary, of shipmasters and seamen. The secretary also outlined the plan to build a new shipyard at the Mare Island Navy Yard, California. He also outlined the plan to build a new shipyard at the Mare Island Navy Yard, California.

FOOD FOR ARMY IS EXPENSIVE.
Rations Advance from Twenty-seven to Thirty Cents in Few Months.
(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, March 30.—
Rapid advances in the cost of living are being felt in the army,
the House Military Affairs Committee was told today by Brigadier-General A. F. Smith, who is an estimate of twenty-seven cents a ration was obtained by the quartermaster's department and today the cost would be thirty. The general denied emphatically a charge recently made in the Senate that the United States Army was poorly provided. "It is the best fed
army in the world," he said.

As to the differing opinions among officers who have testified concerning the necessary complements for ships,
the general said that one of the most vexing problems was that of the number of men needed. The whole subject, he added, was being worked out by a board of officers.
"In time of peace," he said, "I do not believe we can add 20,000 men to the navy in one year, as has been suggested. We have difficulty in keeping the present quota full because of high wages ashore."
The problem, Secretary Daniels said,
was to enlist men of the right type,
and the navy today, he said, "is a great machine shop. I believe the day will come when we will not accept any man who has not had some experience as a chauffeur, or machinist or in other vocational callings."
The secretary defended the educational features developed during his administration, which he contended were bringing in men of the highest type.

NO TOMPOOLERY.
"You can never have an efficient navy," he said, "if you build a bulkhead so high that young men who enter at the bottom cannot rise to the top. I burned a barrel of recruiting literature showing men going to the tropics and also associating with half-dressed women. It was indecent. All our literature now shows that men who enlist will get education and vocational training. The educational work in the fleet does not interfere with target practice or maneuvers. The captains may suspend it as they deem best."

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Proposed increases of 10 cents per hundred pounds on rice from California points to points in Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas, Wyoming and New Mexico, which would have been effective tomorrow, were suspended today by the Interstate Commerce Commission until July 25 pending investigation.

RICE GROWERS PROTEST.
(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—The California Rice Growers' Association and the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce telegraphed protests on the proposed increase to the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday.
The California shippers point out that higher rice rates to the points named would place them at a disadvantage with other rice growing sections.
It is believed that the suspension of the increase by the commission was in response to these telegraphic protests.

MARYE DEPARTS

chosen to succeed Mr. Marye, will

SENATE ORDERS GASOLINE QUIZ.
Criminal Conspiracy Charge Against Standard Oil.
Final Vote Scheduled Today
on Part of Resolution.

Rockefeller Concern Accused of Boosting Prices.
(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, March 30.—An investigation by the Attorney-General to determine whether a criminal conspiracy is back of the rise in the price of gasoline is directed in a resolution introduced today by Senator Martine and adopted today by the Senate. Many Senators joined in urging the investigation. They said the sudden increase in the cost of gasoline had brought floods of letters and telegrams of protest from their constituents.

A preamble to the resolution which declared that the oil market was controlled and the price fixed by a trust—the Standard Oil Company—aroused vigorous opposition and finally went over until tomorrow without a final vote, when debate on the army bill was resumed. A motion to table the preamble was defeated 35 to 23.
Senator Martine gave notice he would seek a final vote tomorrow.
In the meantime, though actually it is without opposition, the resolution technically remains before the Senate awaiting disposition of the preamble.
SENATOR STONE'S CHARGE.
"Every Senator knows," he doesn't think," that consumers of gasoline are being robbed by some thieves." Senator Cummins declared he had concluded that the Trade Commission was preparing to report to the Attorney-General on complaint that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana was in a conspiracy with eastern branches of the company, "the effect of which is to lift the prices of gasoline in the eastern country above prices in the West, where there is some competition by independent concerns."

"I sincerely hope that the conspiracy which I believe exists will be broken up and overthrown," the Iowa
Senator declared.
Senator Lodge took exception to the preamble of the resolution arraigning
the Standard Oil company as a trust, and Senator Hardwick suggested striking out the preamble.
"I can see any reason for timidity in arraigning the Standard Oil Company," responded Senator Martine.
"God knows it has not been solicited of the rest of the people."

LODGE'S REMARK.
Senator Lodge remarked that the Supreme Court had dissolved Standard Oil.
"It was organized during a Republican administration and its roots run very deep," responded Senator Martine.
"It was organized in the State of New Jersey," retorted Senator Lodge.
"Nobody but the Attorney-General believed the Supreme Court's decree would dissolve the Standard Oil trust or give any relief to the people," declared Senator Pomeroy. "I have said, by the chief constructor who about uniform rise in prices, gasoline is today selling in various cities at a difference in price of 10 cents a gallon—more than the price of gasoline
a little while ago."

CAPTAIN OF SUSSEX SAW THE TORPEDO.
(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
PARIS, March 30.—In the official report of the captain of the cross-channel steamer Sussex on the circumstances under which she was damaged by an explosion in crossing the channel last Friday, the following passage occurs:
"I perceived about 2:50 o'clock the wake of a torpedo 150 yards port.
Immediately ordered the helm thirty degrees to the right and in order to accelerate the maneuver ordered the stoppage of the starboard engine, which was immediately done. All my efforts notwithstanding, I could not avoid the projectile, which hit the bow of the Sussex on a line with the foremast and produced a formidable explosion, carrying away all the front of the vessel up to the first airtight bulkhead."

COURT SUSTAINS BOMB INDICTMENTS.
GERMAN CONSUL AND OTHERS
MUST STAND TRIAL.
Charge of Conspiracy to Set on Foot Military Expedition to Canada from this Country will be Aired in United States Tribunal at San Francisco.

(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—
Judge Maurice T. Dooling overruled today demurrers to the bomb plot indictments against Franz Bopp, German Consul-General; Baron E. H. von Schack, Vice-Consul; Baron George Wilhelm von Brincken, of the German army, identified with the consulate, and four others. The ruling means that all will have to go to trial.

The German Consul and the other defendants demurred to two indictments, one charging conspiracy to set on foot a military expedition into Canada and the other conspiracy to interfere with interstate and international commerce. A previous indictment had been quashed on technical grounds.
The action of Judge Dooling removes the last obstacle in the way of the prosecution and all of the defendants will now be required to plead to the charges against them. Assistant United States Attorney Annet Adams announced that an immediate request would be made to have the cases set for trial.

CROP PROSPECTS IN GERMANY GOOD.
(BY WIRELESS AND A. P.) BERLIN, March 30 (via Tucker-ton).—Baron von Schorlemer, Private Minister of Agriculture, speaking in the Prussian House of Lords today, declared that, according to the latest report, the crop prospects were as good as it was possible to expect. In spite of the war, the Minister said, Germany was not marching toward hunger and would be able to hold out until a victorious end.

Assumed Germany is Withholding Reply to American Note Until Commandery of Submarines are Heard From—In the Meantime Washington Anxiety is Increasing.
(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, March 30.—Three days have passed since Ambassador Gerard was instructed to inquire of the German government whether any of its submarines torpedoed the British channel steamer Sussex, and the United States still is without an admission or denial of responsibility.
Nor has any word come from Mr.
Gerard regarding the inquiries he was instructed to make regarding the attacks upon the British ships Englishman and Manchester Engineer.

It is assumed here that the German government is withholding any statement while awaiting reports from submarine commanders. Officials are puzzled, however, by the failure of the ambassador to Berlin to make some response to the State Department's communication.
While the State Department has almost completed its investigation, so far as other sources of information are concerned, no action will be taken until there is a report from Berlin.

CHAPPE AT DELAY.
In an effort to secure conclusive proof regarding the disasters which have overtaken the Sussex and other unarmed British merchant ships carrying American citizens, the United States is employing every means at its command. While the situation has developed for the time into a waiting one, high official quarters have reflected the anxiety which grows hourly as no word is received from Germany. Unless Ambassador Gerard reports in the near future, he may be asked the cause of the delay.
The State Department still is proceeding with the utmost caution.
Secretary Lansing and other officials carefully studied the contents of dispatches which came in during the day.
Several messages regarding the Sussex and the other ships which have met disaster were received and, with the exception of one dispatch from Ambassador Page at London, none was made public.

GERMAN DESERTERS SEEK TO ESCAPE.
NEW YORK, March 30.—Johann Roudin and Hans Winkler, Germans, facing virtual imprisonment at Ellis Island until the end of the war, made a desperate attempt to escape today. They were captured in the railroad yards in Jersey City after escaping from a third floor room by means of a rope of bed sheets and swimming to the Jersey shore. The pair came over here as stowaways on a Dutch freighter March 2. Because of war conditions, the immigration authorities are not deporting German subjects.

WATER'S WON BY SAN DIEGO.

Night to Reservoir Site at El Capitan Given City.

Billion Must Make Way for the Gigantic Improvement.

Cuyamaca Company, Defeated, Planning an Appeal.

The city of San Diego was awarded the right to a site at El Capitan for the gigantic reservoir, which is to be an important part of its projected municipal water system, by a decision handed down by Register Roche and Justice Mitchell of the local Land office yesterday.

That this is not the end of the city's long battle for its own water was indicated last evening by James A. Murray, Ed Fletcher and William A. Shaw, owners of the Cuyamaca Water Company and the principal opponents of the grant, who announced that they will at once take an appeal.

AS TO INDIANS.

One of the outstanding features of the decision has to do with the Indians of El Capitan reservation, whose land, according to the testimony adduced by the opponents of the plan, will be inundated if the reservoir is built. The register and recorder have taken this fact, but add that history shows that such matters have not in the past constituted an insurmountable obstacle to the march of progress and that, further, the city of San Diego is pledged to take care of the Indians.

The land officials remark that much of the testimony is conflicting and that there is a marked difference of opinion as to the best method of handling the water problem for the city. They declare there can be no doubt as to the absolute necessity of storage reservoirs for the use and benefit of the municipality, condition of which they are constrained to take judicial notice.

"The city of San Diego is asking for a reservoir site in which to store surplus water, much of which is now wasted, and in so asking it appears to us that the city is clearly within its rights, it being a well-laid-down principle that municipalities be aided by the state in securing inherent rights to the use of water in streams touching the city limits," says the decision. "To us it appears that the San Diego River is peculiarly the attribute of the city of San Diego, and intended by nature to furnish the life-giving waters for the city and its settlement. To conserve these waters is to conserve the health of the city."

Mrs. Omar Toft.
Formerly Mrs. Leola K. Northam.
The marriage occurred in Alhambra yesterday.

MRS. NORTHAM NOW MRS. TOFT

Joint Figures in Sensational Episodes United.

Sequel to Remarkable Stocker Diamond Theft Story.

Racing Driver's Father Only Witness of Ceremony.

Mrs. Leola K. Northam, the pivotal figure in a score of sensational episodes, and her former racing driver, Omar Toft, were married yesterday afternoon by Rev. J. I. Myers at the latter's home in Alhambra. Mr. Myers is a pastor of the Christian Church.

The impending wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Toft, who have been residing at the Rutland apartments, was rumored several weeks ago, but was presented by the serious injury of Mr. Toft on March 1, two days before the actual ceremony, in which he was an entrant. The only person present at the wedding other than the principals and the minister was the father of the bridegroom, Nis Toft of San Fernando.

Mrs. Northam was a well-known figure in social circles in this city following her marriage to Col. "Bob" Northam. The couple were noted for their devotion and when in December, 1911, Mrs. Northam brought suit for divorce, she announced that her husband was her ideal of a husband. She termed him "the perfect man." The only difference between the couple, Mrs. Northam explained, was in their mode of life, she preferring a quieter existence than did her husband.

After she had a settlement of $50,000 in cash, and a home valued at $15,000, the Northams were reunited October 4, 1912, when Col. Northam was taken fatally ill. The divorce suit was never tried.

Mrs. Northam figured in a sensational stabbing affair May 15, 1912, when an unidentified woman plunged a small knife into her breast. No arrests were ever made. Her and her husband were forced to defend her husband's estate against the claims of Maudie E. Northam Riley, a daughter by a former wife of Col. Northam.

ENTER OMAR TOFT.

Always fond of outdoor sports, Mrs. Northam entered the automobile racing game and entered expensive racing cars in many events. Her and as an entrant in big races came with the so-called "DeLage hoax," when she was alleged to have entered a DeLage car in the Corona and Santa Monica races, the car never appearing. Toft, who was to have driven the racer, left here, supposedly for France, and his whereabouts as to the wonderful speed of the car received wide publicity. An investigation was started by interested parties on the return of Toft to Los Angeles, but the "mystery" was never solved.

THE DIAMOND CASE.

Perhaps the most sensational event in the career of Mrs. Toft occurred this winter when she was traced across the country by the coroner and found in the possession of $35,000 worth of diamonds, the property of Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker. The diamonds were returned to the owner, being recovered from pawnbrokers in this city, St. Paul and St. Louis, and a part from a safe deposit vault at Slater, Mo. Toft is said to have been the victim of a clever thief, who secured her services in disposing of the diamonds. No prosecutions were ever started. Prior to the diamond theft, which occurred in a San Francisco hotel the latter part of December, Mrs. Stocker and Mrs. Northam were fast friends.

Another incident that occurred in the life of Mrs. Northam was an assault made on her husband by a burglar shortly before his death. Recently she reported to an attorney, the loss of a $3500 diamond in a local hotel.

Toft, by hard application and skillful work, became famous across the continent as a driver of racing cars. He has twice been injured, the last time just prior to the Acot races of the 4th inst. Mr. Toft was in San Francisco when Mrs. Northam was interviewed by detectives relative to her knowledge of the Stocker diamond robbery. He returned here yesterday before the arrival of the detectives and Mrs. Northam and declared that he was in the East for the purpose of purchasing racing cars. Mrs. Northam stated that he was not concerned in the robbery of the Stocker jewels.

At the wedding of Mr. Toft and Mrs. Northam yesterday neither gave any indication of the former plans. Mrs. Northam gave her age as 33 years and Toft said he is 29.

INTERESTING.

NUPTIALS FOR JUDGE.

Marriage License is Issued Here to Arizona Jurist and the Widow of Former Partner; Family Silent When News is Told at Tucson.

A marriage license was issued here yesterday afternoon to Judge John H. Campbell of Tucson, Ariz., and Mrs. Elsie W. Nave of the same city. Interest centers in the announcement because of the prominence of the couple and the fact that Judge Campbell was a law partner of Mrs. Nave's first husband, Judge Frederick Nave of the District Court at Globe. Mr. Nave died five years ago.

Mrs. Nave has made Los Angeles her residence for the past seven months. She has two children, Margaret, a student at the Temple Normal School at Temple, Ariz., and Fred, Jr., who is with her.

Judge Campbell, who became a widower four years ago, has two daughters, Helen and Mable, and one son, John, all residents of Tucson. The daughters, when asked about the issuance of the license last evening, refused to discuss the matter.

DONIPHAN-DASH SURVIVOR WEDS.

Soldier Whose Years are Near Ninety is Bridegroom.

Recalls Remarkable Campaign Where Pershing Now Is.

How Lawyer Subdued Northern Mexico in Three Months.

On the eve of a full 90 years, Thomas J. Payne, one of the very few survivors of the extraordinary Doniphon expedition into Northern Mexico, which antedated Gen. Pershing's by seventy years, was married here yesterday to Mrs. Mary A. Abrams, 62 years old. Mr. Payne, whose age is 16 years, was a boy of 14 when he ran away from home and joined the forces under Alexander William Doniphon, a country lawyer, and been student of military tactics, who with 1000 men conquered Northern Mexico in 1846 after defeating two armies, each of which considerably outnumbered his own band. Adding to the remarkable character of the expedition, Doniphon lost but four soldiers in a year's campaign.

Mr. Payne's wedding with Mrs. Abrams was solemnized yesterday at the home of Mrs. E. N. Wary, No. 122 North Fickett street, by Rev. Frederick William Farr, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church.

The bridegroom remembers the weary march from Fort Leavenworth to Santa Fe, the dashing battle of Sacramento Pass, which has been described as one of the most wonderful feats of American arms, and the subsequent capture of Chihuahua. Later Mr. Payne fought in the Civil War on the Union side and was wounded five times in the head, had a piece of one ear shot away and one foot filled with shrapnel.

Mr. Payne lived at Liberty, Mo., the home of Doniphon, who, Mr. Payne recalls, was born in Kentucky, was always interested in military affairs and studied to such effect that when the war with Mexico broke out he was brigadier-general of the State Militia of Missouri. When the Governor of Missouri called for volunteers to go to Mexico, Doniphon enlisted as a private but was unanimously elected colonel of the First Regiment, Missouri Mounted Volunteers. Mr. Payne enlisted in his command.

Col. Doniphon's regiment joined what was called the Army of the West, led by Col. Kearny, and left Fort Leavenworth on June 26, 1846, for Santa Fe, then the Mexicans' most northerly stronghold.

THREE HOMES DESTROYED; MAN IS HELD FOR ARSON.

THREE houses were destroyed, two families made homeless and more than a score of others menaced in a fire on Rose Hill, in the section known locally as Happy Valley, last evening. James Thompson, in whose home the fire originated, is held as an arson suspect. He was arrested as he was hurrying from the neighborhood, according to a report made by Patrolman L. A. Nelson.

According to the officers and neighbors the fire was followed by an explosion in the Thompson home that blew out the doors and windows. Mrs. Thompson, who was in the house when the fire started, had one hand severely burned and is alleged to have appealed to a policeman to save her husband, who, she declared, was asleep in the house.

Firemen from the city who responded to the alarm succeeded in getting the blaze under control and saving the neighborhood only by affixing a line of hose 1500 feet long. This one line of hose and the absence of a breeze saved more than a score of homes, the firemen stated. The burned district is on the side of a hill and is without water protection from fire.

In addition to the Thompson house, valued at $500 and insured for that amount, the home of George F. Albino, next door, was burned and a vacant house, the owner of which could not be located last night.

In describing the alleged fight of Mr. Thompson, Officer Nelson said: "Two little girls, Ruth and Mary Orlenstein, residents of the hill, first discovered the fire and screamed. I looked up the hill toward where they were standing and at the rear of the Thompson home, I saw a man running out of the back of the Thompson house and down the hill. I thought it was a chicken thief and drew my gun. On command he halted and I held him. Then the windows of the house blew out and I saw the fire. After turning the prisoner over to another officer I turned in an alarm. Thompson was nonchalant and not disturbed over the fire. I sent Mr. and Mrs. Thompson to Central Station, but later asked that the woman be detained.

Mr. Thompson declared at Central Station that he was not at the point where he was reported by Nelson. "I was on the opposite side of the hill and running toward my house. I was four blocks away when the officer grabbed me."

The prisoner's statement was corroborated by Mrs. Thompson. She

FOUR POLES NOW WHERE THERE WERE BUT THREE.

AT THE point of the triangle at Monte Vista and Pasadena avenues, directly in front of the handsome branch public library recently erected there, four huge, unshapely poles now stand where, until yesterday afternoon, only three had stood. The municipality has raised a seventy-foot pole within a few inches of two of the others. Within this little triangle there now are raised the poles and wide cross-arms of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, the Home Telephone Company and the Municipal Power Bureau. This is a sample of what can be expected in many places if the city goes ahead with the paralleling of the present light and power systems.

Raising of this first pole of the municipal electrical distributing system was celebrated at the point mentioned above yesterday afternoon. About 500 people participated. President Del Valle of the Public Service Commission presided, and there were short speeches by himself, Mayor Sebastian, Councilmen Betkowski, Roberts and Wheeler and Councilwoman Lindsey. Engineers Scattergood and Mulholland, Special Counsel Mathews and G. Gordon Whitnall.

Children of the Avenue 42 school sang and the Police Band played. The pole was raised, with various city officials participating in shoveling in the earth; an American flag was unfurled from the seventy-foot height, and then Miss Lucretia Del Valle, daughter of President Del Valle, brushed over the base of the pole a bottle of Los Angeles aqueduct water.

The general idea expressed in the speeches was that the raising of this pole was significant, as it marked the beginning of the city's distributing system for municipal power.

President Del Valle reviewed the situation and then said: "Don't imagine that those directly interested with the handling of this enterprise are on a bed of roses or without misgivings. There are corporations in this city in which many of our ablest men are interested, and they demand that their properties be not made useless. It is not the purpose of the city to confiscate the property of any man without due compensation. But it is essential to come face to face with powerful influences.

"There is in one of the papers this morning a petition that will be signed by thousands of people. [This is the petition asking that the city does not parallel existing distribution lines, and thus avoid a great economic waste.—Ed.] They are making an application to a body which has no jurisdiction. By a vote of ten to one you have spoken, and we are following their lead."

President Betkowski of the City Council spoke on the same general lines, declaring: "There'll be no stop—we're going right ahead. This is the first pole, and it makes no difference how many delegations go before the City Council, the work will go on. I'm here to pledge myself to stay with this thing until we finish it."

Chief Engineer Mulholland spoke of the work accomplished in building the aqueduct, and declared that next to the provision of an adequate water supply for a great city the production of power from this source is of the greatest importance.

BIPLANE SPLITS TELEPHONE POLE.

Race Aboard on Ground; Blade of Propeller Smashes Heavy Timber.

A heavy telephone pole got decidedly the worst of an argument with a biplane yesterday, but nearly cost the lives of Corp. Al Smith of the Second Aero Squadron, U.S.A., and Porter H. Adams, the Boston aviator.

They took a before-breakfast flight from the Griffith Park aviation field, and while aloft the machine was well maneuvered to a degree. But not as when it landed, easily and gracefully, and the birdmen elected to take a spin at high speed on the smooth earth. A puff of wind stirred past caught the plane and playfully tossed the whole fabric against a near-by pole.

One of the propeller blades struck the pole six feet from the ground, with such force it split the timber from top to bottom, was driven completely through the wood and could not be freed. Only the aviators' nerves were injured.

BIGGEST WIRE THEFT.

Bold Larcenists Carry Away Ton and Half of Copper from a Power Station; Use Three Auto Trucks and Leave no Tangible Clues.

The biggest theft of copper wire ever reported in Los Angeles county was accomplished late Wednesday night or early yesterday morning near Lancaster. More than a ton and a half of the material was taken from a station of the Pacific Light and Power Company.

Indications discovered by Deputy Sheriff Strong and Hunter are that the thieves used three automobile trucks to carry away their booty. The trail of these machines was followed to the county highway, where it was lost on the pavement. The cars turned toward the city, and it is believed they came to Los Angeles and the wire was secreted.

Officials of the power company, as well as the Sheriff's deputies who worked on the case, are of the opinion that the work is that of the organized wire tappers who have stolen miles of trolley wire from the streets of Los Angeles.

DREAM OF REST IS SHATTERED.

Loss of Money Crushes Poetic Hope of Dying Man.

His Last Sigh for a Faraway Cemetery He Loved.

While a Man He Trusted Faces Charge of Theft.

Spring is coming in a cemetery at Sauk Center, Minn., and the first robins are in the big oak trees, just as Joseph Heger wished it should be on the day they were to bury him there. But he is going to occupy a lot in a California cemetery, because the last man he trusted is alleged to have betrayed him. Yesterday, Mr. Heger died at the County Hospital and yesterday John Gallagher, a nurse formerly employed there, was brought here from Colfax, Ariz., charged with having stolen the money that was subscribed to send the dying man to his home and the cemetery he loved.

Because he was a cripple, Joseph Heger knew he was soon to die. His family was not wealthy, but his brother could provide for him, and Mr. Heger would get into his wheel chair in the summer time and travel to the south of California, to avoid the aching winds and the depressing cold. He wanted Joseph's last winter to be comfortable.

Then it was announced that Joseph should come home to die. The doctors had scheduled his life accurately. It was all arranged.

LOVABLE CHARACTER.
He could not provide for himself here and had no money for an attendant, so he went to the County Hospital. His cheery composure elevated him to the distinction of most charming and loved of the thousand patients in that home of tragedies. Daily he faded, as he had been told he would, but he said "I'll live until spring and then I'm going home to my little garden." That was what he called the cemetery at Sauk Center.

With the first expression of spring in Minnesota the brother wrote the tidings. Then Joseph Heger became restless. He was fading too fast—faster than the doctors had expected. He was afraid he could not wait until late spring. He wanted to be there when the birds burst and the drowsy days of the spring sun came.

So his brother sent him $25 with which to return. But Joseph Heger could not travel alone. He had to have a companion. Joseph Gallagher had been discharged from the hospital. He wished to return East and offered to accompany Mr. Heger, in exchange for the fare.

It was arranged. But there was the extra cost to be met. The nurses and doctors and other patients at the hospital, who knew Joseph Heger so well, took up a collection. They covered the deficit.

THE LAST TRAGEDY.
Then Mr. Heger gave to Gallagher the money with which to purchase tickets. Gallagher took it one afternoon two weeks ago. Joseph Heger stayed awake until midnight. It is charged Gallagher did not come back then, nor the next day. They knew something had happened.

It was the third day when despair came upon Joseph Heger. He realized he could not get back to Sauk Center and the "little garden." He seemed to wither.

Superintendent Whitman went to his assistance, notifying the police to catch Gallagher, and buying Joseph Heger with the confidence the money would be returned. The money was found in Gallagher's pockets. He is alleged to have confessed he took it from Joseph Heger. And while Gallagher was being brought here to face prosecution, Joseph Heger turned over on his side in the hospital yesterday.

"April is beautiful in Minnesota," he said to Nurse Conklin. "It comes first in the 'little garden.'" Tears came to him. The nurse left. Joseph Heger sighed. When the nurse returned he was dead. And now there is no money to send Joseph Heger's body to the "little garden" in Sauk Center.

POOR MAN'S COURT.

Public Defender Pope Settles Many Small Disputes at No Cost to Parties—Asks Council to Make Permanent His New Tribunal.

Believing a "poor man's court," one where no fees are charged, is a necessity in this city, Public Defender Pope has established such a court in his law office, and today submit a report to the City Council outlining his plans, together with suggestions for the establishment of a permanent court. In speaking of his court Mr. Pope said:

"In the course of my business as a public defender I have come across scores of little disputes that should have some method of settlement without the expense necessary to litigation. I find lodging-house proprietors keeping mechanical tools for insignificant sums; loan brokers charging exorbitant rates; disputes over wages, sales, and the many various business dealings; disputes over the ownership of animals, household objects and the like. So far I have been able, through writing letters, to get the parties together and effect a settlement. Only today I made a loan broker charge $14 interest charged on a $16 loan. In another case where a carpenter had a position he found his tools held by a rooming-house keeper for a $1 debt. I also understand that the ordinances governing certain phases of loaning money are broken by the subterfuge of purchasing the article outright and then demanding many times the legal rate of interest."

Mr. Pope in his report to the Council urging his plan will cite numerous cases of a like character and show the apparent necessity of what he terms a poor man's court.

RECORD OF CASE.

On January 25, 1912, W. D. Hamilton filed an application for right of way for reservoir site under the act of Congress as provided. On September 2, 1912, Messrs. Murray, Fletcher and Hinshaw protested against the application, alleging that it conflicted with the rights and properties of these protestants, and especially of the Cuyamaca Water Company. It was claimed on the part of the protestants they were the owners of all the rights and property of the San Diego Flume Company. The protestants also alleged that on July 1, 1910, for the further utilization of the waters of San Diego River, they made and filed a claim on the flood waters of the San Diego River, to the extent of 105,000 miners inches, and that ever since they have vigorously, in good faith, and in accordance with law prosecuted work for the purpose of making effective such appropriation and claim, and have in that behalf expended more than $40,000.

It was further claimed that on March 12, 1911, the protestants filed with the secretary of the Interior application for right of way for reservoir sites and conduits on Conejos and King creeks. It was also set out that the San Diego Flume Company and the protestants, were parties to an agreement with the United States to furnish a part of the water to the Captain Indian Reservation for irrigation purposes, and this contract has been faithfully carried out. It was also asserted that the rights of these protestants were for years recognized and undisputed; that there were no unappropriated waters at the time that Hamilton made his entry; that Mr. Hamilton did not file on the water for his own use, but for the benefit of Ben Hagar and C. T. Sackett and that up to the time that the right of way was filed on by Hamilton, Hagar was manager and Sackett was engineer of the distribution system owned and operated by the protestants; that Mr. Hamilton came to California from Montana, and that soon after his arrival, he made the filings at the solicitation of Mr. Sackett and Mr. Hagar; that Mr. Hagar and Mr. Sackett removed reports and papers relating to the water rights and plans of the protestants and that a suit is now pending in the courts of San Diego county for the recovery of the papers.

It is also alleged that Messrs. Hagar and Sackett brought to the attention of the protestants certain purported purchasers of the entire interest and holdings of the protestants, as successors in interest to the San Diego Flume Company, but one of the conditions of the sale was that $1000 should be paid Hamilton on account of his alleged claim to the water. It is also alleged that the entry of Hamilton was not made in good faith, but for the purpose of annoying and harassing the protestants.

The Cuyamaca Water Company is furnishing much of the surrounding country and a part of the city of San Diego with water. Some time ago, an offer was made by them for the sale of the Cuyamaca Water plant to the city, but nothing ever came of the negotiations. Under the decision all the parties affected are allowed fifteen days to make application for new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence, failing in which they are allowed thirty days within which to appeal to the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

LAST OF SMUGGLERS.

Conviction of San Pedro Laundryman Leaves the Federal Courts Here Free, for the First Time in Years, of Chinese Contraband Cases.

With the conviction of Ling Lee, the San Pedro laundryman, of smuggling three Chinese contrabands, the state was wiped clean in the office of Capt. Charles T. Connel of criminal prosecutions under the anti-smuggling law, for the first time in years.

Since Capt. Connel took charge of the local office, a little more than five years ago, there have been 255 defendants concerned in violations of the smuggling law. The record also shows that of the prosecutions more than 90 per cent. have been successful, and resulted in the conviction of one or more of the defendants concerned in the conspiracy cases. The record also shows that in all the prosecutions there has not been a single case where all the defendants have gone free. The evidence was always sufficient to get some of the accused. Two of the most famous cases tried during the administration of Capt. Connel were those involving Ethel Hall, the alleged "Queen of the Smugglers," and Woo Wei, convicted by a jury in Judge Van Fleet's court. In the last case an appeal was taken to the Circuit Court, and the judgment of the lower court was reversed, followed by an opinion on the doctrine of entrapment that has been utilized in every smuggling case since.

That opinion, stripped of legal verbiage, is that where immigration officers seek to trap smugglers or induce them to violate the law merely to catch them the defendants cannot be convicted. Ethel Hall was the brains of the smuggling outfit on the Pacific Coast. She was in jail some months, but later on pleaded guilty and was fined by Judge Wallbridge. She died soon after.

Man Made Life with Police, Daring Note that Says He was Too Old to Work; Wounded in a Leg Lead to Belief He was a Burglar.

Charles Schultz, 55 years old, left a note saying he was too old to work and therefore he took strychnine to his life yesterday, but the police suspect he sought a tragic death to prevent exposure as a criminal. The appearance of the wounds indicate they were inflicted late last week. Saturday night Ed Eisey, a grocer, interrupted the operations of a burglar in his store at No. 1664

SOCIETY.

When Miss Dorothy Melcher, newly-debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodberry Melcher of Brookline, Mass., decided to come to Pasadena for a much-needed rest, she little thought that Cupid was taking a hand in her affairs.

She arrived here with her parents on February 24 and the next day was introduced to Eric Kobbe, son of Maj. Gen. and Pasadena society and clubman, by Miss Esther Bartlett of Boston, her classmate at school. Mr. Kobbe took advantage of every opportunity to be near the girl he was determined from the first to win.

Mr. and Mrs. Melcher preferred to wait until later in the summer to announce the engagement, but Mr. Kobbe, who comes from a fighting family—being the son of Maj. Gen. W. A. Kobbe of Grand avenue, would not rest until they consented to let the secret out before Mr. Melcher returns East next week, even if the wedding is not to take place until next winter.

The romance of their daughter and Mr. Kobbe is a case of history repeating itself, as it was while on a visit to friends in San Jose twenty-two years ago that Mrs. Melcher met Mr. Melcher.

Miss Melcher has lived both in France and England and is of a decidedly chic and French type. She is fond of all outdoor sports, being an accomplished horsewoman. She is a great lover of dogs and drives her own motor. She is 19 years old. Mr. Melcher is a wealthy manufacturing jeweler. He plans to retire this year and will purchase a winter home here.

Mrs. Kobbe-to-be is a granddaughter of the late James D. Lincoln, former president of the Pasadena National Bank. She and her parents are living at No. 56 North Euclid avenue.

Entertaining Her Mother.
Mrs. J. Edmund Price of No. 555 Hilltop drive is entertaining her mother, Mrs. William Ashton Bradford, a very charming southern belle from Charleston, W. Va., who will be a much-feted guest until the conclusion of her visit the last of April. A year ago Mrs. Bradford came to Los Angeles and immediately was extended many social courtesies, and her return is heralded with joy.

Tuesday Mrs. Price is to give a tea at the Alexandria, at which several friends have been bidden to meet her mother, who, by the way, is very fond of California's incomparable sunshine and people. Others have affairs in the planning.

Informal Luncheon.
Mrs. Robert F. Flint was a luncheon hostess at the Alexandria last Friday, with guests numbering Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. J. A. Van Klee, Mrs. Nathaniel F. Willems and Mrs. R. H. Lewis. Spring flowers in yellowish tints were the decoration of the table, and the party was a thoroughly informal one.

To Marry Soon.
The wedding of Miss Edith Goebel Engelhardt, a popular young lady of the city, to Warren Tucker, formerly of Redlands, but now a resident of Salt Lake, is to be an event of April 12. The service will be held by Rev. C. J. K. Jones, an intimate friend of the bride.

Debutante to Wed Son of Soldier.

Miss Dorothy Melcher.

Boston girl, now sojourning in Pasadena, whose engagement was announced yesterday to Eric Kobbe, son of Maj. Gen. William A. Kobbe, U.S.A. (retired).

the family and formerly the Unitarian pastor at Louisville, at the parental George H. Engelhardt home, No. 344 Occidental boulevard, at 1 o'clock, having been determined as the hour.

Both the bride-elect and her fiance are former Stanford students, where they secured their degrees, and the sole regrettable feature is that Los Angeles will lose one of its fairest young ladies in the culmination of the college romance, for their future home will be in the Mormon city.

Well Known Here.
Mrs. L. D. Phillips and her daughter, Miss Marian, who is a popular Oakland society girl, have just come up from Coronado, where they have been for the past six weeks, and are now at the Beverly Hills Hotel. The Phillips home is one of the show places in the beautiful Lake Merritt district in Oakland, and has an interesting history quite apart from its beauty. The Italian villa, La Capriccio, which looks out over the blue waters of the lake, was built by the Italian sculptor, Felix Pigo, for his own home. Jack London lived there with the sculptor for three years, during which time "The Call of the Wild" was written. The Phillips are devoted to the distinctive home, which they have owned some years, and have not seen anything in their travels abroad which they feel can compare with it.

Miss Marian Phillips is a member of the younger set in Oakland's most exclusive circles, and because of her lively disposition is in great demand wherever she is. At Coronado she managed the tennis match at which Eleanor Sears recently showed her skill, and in fact, the two girls have attracted so much attention and well you say as little as for inferior kinds of hats!

Back from Honeymoon.
Abe Guterman, who left Los Angeles the 15th inst. for San Francisco, where he was married to Miss Betty Labadie, that city, returned here with his bride last evening after a honeymoon trip of two weeks, spent in different parts of the State.

Mrs. Guterman is not a stranger in Los Angeles, as she lived in the Westlake Park district for several years prior to making her home in San Francisco. The Gutermans are residing temporarily at the Kendis Apartments. They will receive their friends April 1, from 8 to 10 o'clock p.m.

DYING IN KANSAS.
People Are Too Sober and Prosperous to Think of Dying.

[Chicago Herald:] Kansas is not unpopular with those planning to die. The death rate of only 9.5 in every thousand is the lowest of any State in the Union. It is so low that Samuel L. Rogers, director of the United States census bureau, wrote to Kansas for an explanation.

W. J. Deacon, the registrar of vital statistics, replied that the people of Kansas are too sober, prosperous and intelligent to think of dying. Agriculture, life, prohibition, the absence of crime and the lack of large industry account for the longevity of the people.

William Allen White talked of the same thing a year or so ago. Mr. White, however, struck the plain truth, not eat the need of his homely Kansas was prosperous and intelligent and healthy, but even so, the State had produced no great authors, painters or thinkers, than, say, its neighbor, Nebraska. Why was this? The wise man of Kansas answered: "Because."

Perhaps there is none, but at any event Kansas seems to be a good place for the ordinary citizen to call home. The latter machine did lightly on said were the bulwarks of the American democracy.

QUEER AIRPLANE ACCIDENT.
Both Select the Same Spot for a Landing.

[Popular Mechanics:] Two military air craft landed at one of the French aerodromes recently in a most odd manner. The pilot of neither machine knew of the close proximity of the other and by a strange coincidence, selected the same spot in alighting. The running gear of one aeroplane slid lightly onto the upper surface of the biplane and rode along with it until the momentum of the craft was spent and it came to rest. For an instant neither of the pilots realized what had happened. No one was injured and very little damage was done to the aeroplanes. There are instances on record of somewhat similar things occurring in the air, which in one particular case ended the life of a quite well-known pilot, but freak landings of this kind are unusual.

Easily Done.
[Stray Stories:] "And you broke off the engagement?" said one young man.

"Yes, not brutally, you know. But I managed it."

"How?"

"Told her what my salary is."

Now is the time to buy: For the first time in years the local consumer is given the choicest of the oranges grown in Southern California, as formerly it was the custom to ship most of the best fruit to the East. The improvement in quality has given rise to a much greater use of this fruit, and new ways of serving it are constantly discovered.

Rice for the emergency shelf should be purchased in sufficient quantity to last for some time, as it is predicted that a rise in price is about to take place. This best of family foods should always be on hand. Both as a "vegetable" and as a dessert it is satisfying and may be made most savory, while at the same time it fulfills every requirement of an all-around food.

Your new summer clothes, if you are a man and have any interest in "dressing up." The window displays in the men's furnishing houses and that window parade in the big Spring-street store for men—I mean the parade of living models—should inspire all men to "dress up."

Practical Suggestion.

Equal parts of linseed oil and lime water well blended in a bottle should be kept always convenient to apply in case of burns or scalds, as this mixture will at once ease the hurt.

Lucky Friday for Us!

If you have not bought your hat for Easter, or even if you have and shall need another at any time during the summer—you will hall with enthusiasm that sale of hats at that most high-class place on upper Broadway, where the hats are not always "black," nor the ornaments always of "stone." I was given a peep into the store and such treasures were revealed! There was, actually, every kind and style of hat demanded by the season, from the finest of sports hats, hand-made and exceedingly smart, to the hat of finest Milan, with gaura fancies and finest feathered brims. There were hats with crowns of Georgette crepe and hats with brims of it; hats of tailorish chicness, and others more ornate. One adorable creation had a brim of old rose straw and a crown of navy blue Georgette with charming wreathlets of tiny flowers, set primly all around. Oh, it was a love! Another in rose pink had a brim of navy blue Georgette and a great double rose was dropping from the very edge of the crown. I looked and looked and would be looking still, were I that I wished to hurry home to tell you all, so that you may be on hand for first choice—although even the very last of them will be too good to be true. The price? You'd never guess, unless you saw the market. At that high-class place you expect figures to be as high, but the manager said that the fact of her surprises which last season attracted so much attention and well you say as little as for inferior kinds of hats!

Newest Handbags.

They have arrived! Handbags of leather in all the popular pastel shades—rose, pink, blue and the more neutral tints. Of course, we knew they would come when those colors in shades became so popular in garments. Pretty are they—as pretty as the flowers that bloom in the spring.

Girls' Hoops.

Even the little girls' dresses are hooped. Some are thus distended at the hem and about half way between the knee and waist. Those of dainty colored silk, made thus, are especially piquant.

A La Mode.

New silks are in large and striking checks and daring stripes. Fancy coats are usually made of silk with ruchings and cordings. Embroidered net, white and blue, makes a delightful lingerie dress. It looks as though ornamental halting would soon be in favor.

Bath pajamas make a quaint trimming for the dress of Georgette crepe. The sleeveless nightgown is a new idea which is meeting with success. Checked taffeta makes a very pretty trimming for a dress of plain color. A delightful novelty is the skirt of ruffled tulle, worn with a bodice of flowered tulle and lace will be combined into quaint and becoming frocks.

Kid in soft colorings trims many of the smartest walking suits this spring. The new spring frocks show many adaptations of the old-fashioned basque.

Dorothy Jordan, a prima donna of "Madame Sherry" fame, heads the programme. She renders a series of songs.

Others will be Julia Ring, one of the famous Three Ring family, in a clever skit; Mary Servoss and company, in "The Passion Play of Washington Squaristan"; Ivan Shook and Lolita, in Russian and classic dances; William Hallen and Ethel Hunter, in "All for Fun"; Tom Dugan and Bette Raymond, in "They Ate Kew."

At the Y.W.C.A.

Three clubs, the Victoria, Slows and Beeska, all organized among the younger girls of the Broadway Department Store by the Young Women's Christian Association, were housed at a dinner given Wednesday night in the blue dining room of the association building by the management of the store. The object was to assist the clubs in building up their membership and more than 100 were present. The clubs were assisted by their leaders, Mrs. Birdella Murphy, Miss Anne Hopkins, Miss Edith Engelhardt, Miss Elita Agee and Miss Lulu May.

Council of Jewish Women.

Mrs. R. H. Jaffe, whose play has just come out in the East, will speak on "The Smile and Its Relation to the Stage," at the meeting of the Council of Jewish women next Thursday. Robert H. Brown, who has just returned from London with flattering criticisms, will play.

At the Y.W.C.A.

The Jolly cheers and songs were interspersed with brief talks by Mr. Smithers, superintendent; Miss Jeffery, Mrs. Walter Borge and Miss Nell Donald. Miss Fern Roemer read a letter from Arthur Lutz, and Miss Germain Lemat gave the prophecy for the Victoria Club. Miss Mabel Nicolaides was toastmistress.

Encourage Sociality.

The reception of the officers of the Progressive Household Club last Sunday afternoon was a very successful affair. Mrs. May Fitch, accompanied by Miss Irene Evans, gave several song selections and English and Swedish songs were given by Miss Betty Gustavson, who was accompanied by Miss Talette Hildahl. Refreshments were served in the office of the club. Among the guests were Mrs. Emma Reed, Miss Margaret Hamilton, Senator H. M. Hurd, Mrs. Frank Stoddard, Mrs. Emma L. Robertson of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Saylor of Chicago, Miss Louise Curtin, Miss Sarah E. Gooch and others.

Next Thursday evening will be held the regular monthly business meeting of the club. Miss Blanch Vance, president of the Los Angeles City Teachers' Club, will be present to tell about the volunteer work among the teachers in organizing English classes. Miss Sarah E. Gooch will register those who wish to study English. Members of the club are urgently requested to be present at this meeting.

Reading Club Luncheon.

Mrs. George P. Stimson of Pasadena entertained at luncheon at the Beverly Hills Hotel last Wednesday, her guests being members of the Wednesday Morning Reading Club, of which Mrs. Stimson has long been a member. Mrs. Stimson's guests were Mrs.

Thomas McDougall, Mrs. Eldridge Fowler, Mrs. H. H. Stahman, Mrs. E. P. Clapp, Mrs. J. A. Cole, Mrs. John Willis Haer, Mrs. Stanford N. Lockwood, Mrs. David L. Gamble, Mrs. Norman Bridge, Mrs. Charles Gates, Mrs. W. K. Green, Mrs. R. T. Blom, Mrs. William E. Nash and Mrs. Charles Stinchfield. The table was attractively decorated in purple and gold.

Bible Readings.

The delightful series of weekly readings which Miss Ida M. Leonard has given since November passes to the closing group this afternoon with a Bible reading, "The Story of Joseph." Miss Leonard will continue the Bible readings during April at her studio, No. 806-S Y.W.C.A. Building, at 4 o'clock each Friday.

The subjects of the Bible readings follow:
March 31, the story of Joseph.
April 1, Job.
April 14, selected (Ruth, Isaiah, Psalms, Corinthians, Revelation).
April 21, Prophecy and Fulfillment: the Life of Jesus.

STAGE.

Comedy.

RIALTO'S FRIVOLOUS.

JEST AND JOLLITY TO RULE IN SHOWLAND THIS WEEK.

The "brows" will have to stay at home this week. Except for one or two vaudeville acts, and the "Miracle Man," we are preparing to be very frivolous on the Rialto. May Robson brings her own delectable brand of comedy in a new bottle entitled "The Making Over of Mrs. Matt," and Julia Ring and company, Dorothy Jordan of "Madame Sherry" fame, and others will while away the happy hours.

Macon.

May Robson, one of the most delightful of American comedians, is said to be as full of humor and humanity as ever in "The Making Over of Mrs. Matt," which comes to the Rialto tonight. The story of Mrs. Matt concerns a good dear kind mother from the Middle West, whose husband, having suddenly become wealthy, desires her to enter the fold of the four Los Angeles. She, however, prefers her quiet home. The son marries a very smart young society girl, and the battle with Mrs. Matt results. One can well imagine how Mrs. Robson with her knowledge of human nature, her humor and her grip upon the heart strings, can bring both tears and laughter from her auditors.

Orpheum.

A top-notch bill must needs follow the Gertrude Hoffman engagement at the Orpheum, and the management promises that the one opening tomorrow will be a real treat.

Dorothy Jordan, a prima donna of "Madame Sherry" fame, heads the programme. She renders a series of songs.

Morocco.
"The Miracle Man" has proven a great success at the Morocco and is to play another week. The piece was written by George Cohan, and dramatic situations are interlarded with much brilliant dialogue.

A Burt Warner, Edmund Lane, Grace Travers, James Gleason, St. Leon and others are making a personal hit.

Panama.

"The Mystic Bird" is the headline at the Panamas on the hill tomorrow. No, it is not a show, but a real canary, said to be capable of whistling any air asked for by the audience. Master Hip will present the bird, which is the first of the bird, and the first few bars of the desired air will be whistled up and finished by the bird.

Other acts will be Roland musical tabloid, "The Dairy Farm," a new comedy sketch, "The Arabian Nights," and the Wright and Davis comedians and Armitage Brothers, acrobats.

Hippodrome.

Kar-Mi, prince of India, introduced by a retinue of royal Hindus, bringing with him a ton of costumes and stage trappings, will headline the new Hippodrome tomorrow afternoon. Kar-Mi is a performance some of the amazing feats credited to the Brahmins of India. Others on the bill will be the comedians, Allen Deane, and comedians in "Sweet County Kerry"; Taylor and Howard, "Brass" music; "The Arabian Nights," "The Arabian Nights," and the Wright and Davis comedians and Armitage Brothers, acrobats.

Rehearsal.

Commencing tomorrow at the public there will be offered a decidedly attractive bill of six acts. Sullivan and Constance, vaudeville comedians, will headline the new Hippodrome tomorrow afternoon. L. A. A. C. SWIMMERS OUT-SPLASH CALIFORNIA.

CLUBMEN DEFEAT
LANGER AND CO.

L.A.A.C. Relay Team Surprises
Itself and Wins.

Langer Sets New Mark in 500-yard Swim.

Haylock Slaughtered Record in Breast Stroke.

BY HOWARD ANGUS.

The Los Angeles Athletic Club swimming team defeated Langer and company of the University of California in a dual meet at the club last night by the point score of 53 to 42. Just before the relay everybody agreed that the meet was going to be a tie, for nobody had the least idea that the clubmen would win. The score was then 42 to 42. California had failed to enter a man in the diving and lost a point that would have been theirs for the according to the agreement only two men from a team could compete in any one event. Even the California swimmers were chiding each other, because none of them had attempted even a flop.

SURPRISING.

As it turned out everybody, na-
body, and the California swimmers, were all wrong. The club had the best relay team. Little Cliff Brown, contrary to expectations, swam the length of the tank and back even with McElroy. Brown was sick afterward. Starrett was just a trifle too fresh and too fast for Kidder, the one-legged swimmer. Bob Howard dove into the water ahead of Langer and held the distance. Sylvester swam and Lindsay put their heads down and splashed. Sylvester signaled like a drunken totterer, but he was able to swim from side to side and finish first.

Langer was the bright and shining light of the meet. He won the 100 and 200 and set a new Southern California record in the 500-yard swim of 6 minutes 35 1/2 seconds.
This race was down on the programme as a 440-yard, but Langer already holds that record and requested it be lengthened so he could have another record.

WITT STARS.

During this 500 yards at record speed, Gerry Witt, a schoolboy from Langer's home town, was sticking just behind him and going through the water like a treadmill. Until the last lap, Langer and he swam arm for arm. Gerry battled gamely the last length, but Langer's lead was too great. Witt was the champion of the United States at long distance swimming.

The 220-yard dash brought the same two Redondo swimmers together again. This time Langer had an easy time of it. In the 100-yard dash he had his trouble. A fat looking person sauntered into the plunge in a pair of red Turkish pants, peeled them off and threwed along the water a half an arm behind the swimmer. The queer-dressed individual was none other than Sol Tuttle.

ANOTHER RECORD.

Haylock set another Southern California record in the breast stroke, swimming the 220 yards in 3m. 21.4-Buras won the backstroke without half trying, but Brinker of the club was second on the program.
The plunge for distance was a foot-away for the club. The only California entry finished twenty feet behind Stearns and Henry. Kewpie Stearns, the human barge, had a difficult time winning last night.

There were three special events.
Allison Allen, her terminals did some especially fine and fancy diving.
Allison Allen is probably the best swimmer in the United States.
Cameron Coffey, the 4-year-old fish, pulled one of his comical Charlie Chaplin imitations and rescued Elizabeth James, 4-year-old, from the tank.
Then he dived from the ten and sitten-foot boards.

Dorothy Buras swam an exhibition
50 yards in 32s. She placed second in the Pacific Coast championships and is to return to San Francisco
April 5 to swim the race over.
It seems everybody but Miss Buras jumped the gun.
Langer and the three other California swimmers are going to San Diego Saturday to swim at the exposition city. After which they will return to California University to pursue their studies.

TIGER YANNIGANS WIN A BALL GAME.

FROMME AND ARELLANES DO
THE PITCHING HONORS.

Otto Hess is Grand Old Feature of the Game—Wallops the Ball for a Single, Double and a Couple of Other Drives—Iron-armed Mark McGaffigan Before the Midnight.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

The Tiger Yannigans rose up in their might yesterday, and beat the superior wadding out of the Regulars. This is the first time that such a thing has happened since the squad returned from Malar's ranch, and because of this many regarded the circumstance as an accident. There may be those not present who may doubt that the Yans won, and yet the score of 5 to 3 is circumstantial evidence of the highest order.

Fairbanks and McElroy, who are driving for recognition, pitched for the Regulars. The game was split seven innings for Fairbanks and one for McElroy. Fairbanks was the winner of the game, and the Yans time enough to beat Mac in one inning.

FOR THE EATS.

Those splendid veterans, Fromme and Arellanes, caught on with the Yans and shared in the high honors of the victory by heaving six and three innings, respectively. Arellanes displayed the same fortune that made him famous in Sacramento, permitting but one safe whack in three rounds. Arellanes received a bonus of $500 for winning twenty-five ball games with Sacramento. Yesterday, no bonus was involved. He was pitching solely in defense of his meal ticket. This is simply mentioned to show the spirit of the man. He places his meal ticket above mere money.
That is a spirit which is bound to win
on a ball field, especially at a time like this when so many athletes are threatened with premature hunger.
Commercialism is gradually passing from baseball. At least that is the way the players seem to feel about it.
Many of those who have been canned say that they never have seen such a scarcity of commercialism.

THE AUDIENCE.

The game was witnessed by a crowd which consisted almost entirely of ball players out of a job, who occupied the meager bench in the grand stand. There were also a few private citizens with a pull present, and one or two others without a pull who were believed to have borrowed under the fence when the ground keeper was not on guard. Between fixing up the diamond and repelling
the eager fans who would tunnel into the park, Mr. Schallmoe finds himself busier than a tramp when food is scarce.
Some of the fans who couldn't distinguish the park or chop their way through the fences, sought solace in the concessions.

HEAVY SLUGGING GIVES FIRST GAME TO STANFORD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PALO ALTO, March 30.—Heavy slugging was the feature of Stanford's baseball victory over U.S.C. in the first of a two-game series this afternoon.
Although the southerners gathered six runs off Wickersham, the Los Angeles boy who was in the box for Stanford, the Cardinal-hoed nine was able to hit the offerings of the four U.S.C. pitchers for a total of fourteen tallies. Errors were also frequent and were largely responsible for the scoring.

sort, but these men he threw are not the greatest Japanese Ju-Jitsu experts. The great ones of Japan he could not throw. Some day one of these will come and Mr. Santel will lay on his back.

Now comes Tarro Miyake with a long list of great European victories behind him. The Japanese have taken him to their homes as a long lost brother. They will show Mr. Santel.
At first they wanted the L.A.A.C. to put on the match, but George Twiss could not see the idea. So the Japthemselves. They have selected the Shrine Auditorium.

"Enough Japanese will attend,"
said one yesterday, "to make the CACTUS KATE" SETS A RECORD.

Makes Round Trip to Bakers-field in 7h. 4m.

Time Considered Remarkable for Long Run.

Mountain Grades Taken in Careful Manner.

BY AL G. WADDELL.

Louis Nikrent demonstrated the speed possibilities of the new Ridge road to Bakersfield yesterday morning in a manner wholly convincing to those immediately concerned, when, driving the Packard Twin Six "Cactus Kate II," he hung up a new Los Angeles-Bakersfield record of 7h. 4m.
This takes only two minutes of time
an hour under the best record ever made over the Bouquet Canyon road.

After checking at the Southern

Hotel, Nikrent immediately started back for Los Angeles, and checked in at his starting place, the Hotel Lankershim, exactly 7h. 4m. elapsed time, from the moment he started.

COMPARISON HARD.

Comparison between Nikrent's new record and the old is difficult to make because the Bouquet Canyon road is twenty-four miles longer than the new Ridge road. Nikrent made no other preparation for his fast trip yesterday, however, than two trips part way over the road, and in view of the fact that "Kate" carried four passengers, his time is considered very good by those who have studied the Ridge road. It is very difficult and dangerous to make fast time over the twenty-nine miles of mountain grades that comprise the Ridge because of the danger of meeting machines on the sharp curves.

The "Owl" takes six and one-half hours to go from Los Angeles to Bakersfield, and hence Nikrent's round trip in only thirty-nine minutes longer time is good evidence that "Kate" did not waste much time on the road.

While Nikrent admits having rolled
as high as eighty-two miles per hour on the long grade stretching north from the foot of the Tejon, he still avows that his effort was only good touring time, and that with proper preparation and a little patrolling on the ridge, the record here up yesterday could be materially lowered.

It was just 5:30 when "Kate" was checked out of the Lankershim by Night Clerk F. E. Jackson. Nikrent was accompanied by Al G. Waddell, George M. Schump and Willard A.
Wood of Harle C. Anthony, Inc. Fog over Calabasas and for several miles above Lankershim cut into the Packard's time, but nevertheless
"Kate" rolled into Bakersfield in forty-seven minutes.

The ridge was taken carefully, not as any great speed made through the pass, but "Kate" rolled the last 3.3 miles from the foot of Tejon into Bakersfield in thirty-four minutes. At the Hotel Southern "Kate" was checked in by Lester L. Michael at 5:44.

SLIGHTLY SLOWER.

The homeward trip was made in slower time, due to the increased traffic on the road. A violent wind which was encountered on the ridge and which blew the sand in stinging clouds did not help Nikrent's time either.

At just 12:34 "Kate" was checked
in at the Lankershim by H. H. Kan-agay, who was at the desk. This was within four minutes of the schedule to which Nikrent was driving.

STAND BY THESE PLAYERS.

Official has been earned money through action by which to buy the one of Dick Rayless and my Kane. The suggestion is by a number of prominent fans, who offer to open fund with a liberal contribution.

They are attracted by the fact that Rayless and Kane, through their long service to the Tigers, should be given unconditional release rather than sent to Wichita. A matter, however, is now out of the hands of the club. In the event of a sale, the club probably will make a sale to the Yankees in the hope of securing a big release through money by popular subscription.

Proposition is being made without precedent in the history of baseball. A known never before has been proposed to purchase a player through money by popular subscription.

FULTON TO BE NEXT CHAMPION.

At Least Manager Collins Says So.

Reich and Fulton Training for Their Battle.

Dillon Thinks He Could Lick Willard with Ease.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, March 30.—New York's next big heavyweight boxing bout will bring together Fred Fulton, the big Wisconsin blackwoodman, and Al Reich, the former heavyweight amateur champion, Mike Collins, Fulton's manager, who has been here for several days arranging for Fulton's New York debut, left for Milwaukee today after practically completing negotiations with the stadium athletic club. The bout probably will be held at the Manhattan Opera-house the latter part of April.

Manager Collins is sure that Fulton is going to be the next heavyweight champion and he says that he can beat Jess Willard right now. Since Fulton knocked Jim Flynn out several weeks ago he is commanding much attention in pugilistic circles. By defeating Flynn Fulton showed that he has a dangerous punch. Fulton expects to train in one of the local boxing clubs, the same as Willard did, and have daily matinees for the boxing public. Fulton may have a sparring partner Sam McVey and Harry Willis, negro heavyweights. Fulton once boxed a four-round exhibition with Jess Willard at Rochester, Minn., and Collins said he had no trouble in pounding the present titleholder.

Jack Dillon, the light heavyweight champion, came out today with a bold challenge to Jess Willard. Despite the great difference in size, Dillon says he thinks he can beat the champion. "I have met and defeated many men weighing over 200 pounds," said Dillon, "and I am eager to get into the ring with Willard and show the champion that he is not invincible. I can do it. I would also like to take on Moran for ten rounds."

COULON WORK-OUT FOR A COME-BACK.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Johnny Coulon, former bantamweight boxing champion, has been working his head off lately trying to get into shape for a come-back. The light-colored pugilist seems to be getting into pretty fair trim and may be expected to show something before long. He is now at 117 pounds and is just about right.

ATHLETICS LICKED BY CHATTANOOGA.

CHATTANOOGA (Tenn.), March 30.—Chattanooga Southern Association club easily defeated the Philadelphia Athletics' second team here today, 7 to 4, the visitors rallying in the ninth and scoring three runs. Score: Chattanooga, 7; Athletics, 4. Errors: 1. Batteries—Martinez, Karr, Peters; Richardson, Hollinger and Perkins.

HAMMER CLAIMS HE WILL LICK WOLGAST.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Ad Wolgast and Eke Hammer are reported to be in first-class condition for their battle tomorrow night. The fighters will go ten rounds and the odds are about even of the two men. Hammer seems to be in the best shape of his career and announced that he will give Wolgast such a licking that he will retire from the ring for good and all.

MEDALS HANDED TO BASKETBALL MEN.

Medals will be presented to the winners of the A.A.U. basketball tournament Saturday night. The "winning" ceremonies will take place at Normal J.H. Winners of each division will be awarded gold medals; second-place men, silver medals, and third-place men, bronze medals.

TRACK MEET ON TOMORROW.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) CORVALLIS (Wash.), March 30.—With the receipt today of entries from the University of California, the last of the clubs and colleges that were expected to participate in the western indoor track meet here Saturday has been heard from. The completed roster of contenders is as follows:

University of California, Stanford University, University of Southern California, Olympic Club, Los Angeles Athletic Club, Washington State College, University of Washington, University of Idaho, Whitman University, Multnomah Athletic Club, Columbia University, University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College, McMinnville College, Willamette University and Chama Indian School. Several unattached athletes will also participate.

COLLEGIERS SCRAP FOR PLACES ON TEAM.

Several matches in the tournament for the L. A. Junior College tennis team have been played off. The biggest surprise came when James Voss stepped on Wallis Johnston, 5-1, 6-4. The other scores are: Lahl beat Burall, 5-2, 5-4; Olerich beat Mohler, 5-10, 6-3; Yoshiga beat Kittle, 7-5, 6-1 and Elbert walloped Carpenter, 6-2, 6-1.

BASEBALL GAME.

L. A. High and San Pedro are slated to mix in a baseball encounter on Hough Field next Monday afternoon. As yet the Cliffhangers have not tested the fettle of the Harbor boys.

SECOND ROUND OF PREP BALL.

Manual and Hollywood Should Stage Good Game.

Haslett Says Poly is Better than L. A. High.

New Bleachers to Feature Hilltop Battle.

Although there is still much discussion in the town as to the good ship "Prep Baseball" is slated to start on the second tack of its stormy voyage this afternoon. If no unforeseen tornadoes or whirlwinds occur Poly and L. A. will scrap on the Cliffhanger diamond, and Hollywood and Manual will clash out at Hollywood.

The institutions are still glaring at each other and saying unkind things concerning the Sunday baseball ruling. The charge is even made that several schools have not tied the can to their Sabbath desecrators.

NOT BACKWARD.

"L. A. High is the only team that has removed its Sunday baseball men," says Coach Clendenin of the Cliffhangers. "Our four best men were affected by the ruling and we promptly dismissed them."

BLEACHERS, WHEN!

In honor of the occasion the Cliffhangers have turned out in force and erected a grand stand. The structure measures ten feet by six feet and is four tiers high. Although advertised to seat 400, it allows approximately eight square inches of seating space for fifty-three and one-half persons.

ANGEL YANNIGAN'S DEFEAT REGULARS.

Aside from the fact that Frank Chance got caught off first base, there wasn't anything startling in the game between the Los Angeles baseball squad yesterday, as the Angels game handed the Regulars their daily beating. This was purely an accident. Chance walked in the fourth, and was discussing the condition of the grounds with Phil Koerner. Ed Schorr, who enjoys practicing his move to first base, wheeled and made a rapid throw. Koerner looked up barely in time to catch the ball. Otherwise, he would certainly have been beamed. Chance, who was absorbed with more serious problems, was tagged out.

Schorr went four innings on the mound for the Yans, and by his work further qualified for a steady job. Thompson pitched the remaining round, the game being for only five innings. Koerner did all the heavy lifting for the Angels and was credited for five hits. The Yans scored all their runs in the fourth, the winning tally being marked by Sam Downey, late of Kansas City, and now a member of the Galveston club. Downey has been showing great form of late. The score:

Gets Busy in Her New Position.

Mrs. Nettie J. Yaw.

Who was yesterday made the first woman deputy sheriff Los Angeles county ever had.

Unique.

FIRST WOMAN DEPUTY SHERIFF'S SWORN IN.

THE first woman deputy sheriff in Los Angeles county is Mrs. Nettie J. Yaw, who was appointed yesterday to that office by Sheriff...

pointment, she was on her way to Whittier with several delinquent girls who had been sentenced to that institution. Her work will have to do largely with women, although she may be called upon to arrest a boy or man at any time. The position requires that she carry a badge and a gun and that she fulfill office similar to those detailed to the women in the police department of the city.

BITTER FIGHT ON INSANITY CHARGE.

WOMAN BATTLES FOR FREEDOM TO PRESS QUEER SUIT.

After Naming High Officials, Two States and the Southern Pacific in Conspiracy Action, She Demands Trial by Jury When Committed to Hospital.

Demanding a jury trial after she had been formally committed to the State Hospital for the Insane at Patton, Mrs. Teresa E. Wurtsbaugh, whose suit filed in the United States courts charged high officials, two states and the Southern Pacific with conspiracy, is making a determined effort to keep her freedom and press the suit to a finish. Pending the trial before a jury she will be kept in the county law library for six months.

In her sensational suit, which attracted attention from coast to coast, Mrs. Wurtsbaugh named Vice-President Marshall, her son-in-law, the Southern Pacific, the states of Indiana and Kentucky and prominent men as defendants. At the hearing before the Lunacy Commission it was learned that the woman practically lived in the county law library for six months.

She would enter the library soon after the doors opened and remain hard at work, eating peanuts and some fruit. The hard mental toll and improper nourishment are believed to have been responsible for her trouble, diagnosed as paranoia.

The insanity complaint was sworn to by Asst. Dist. Atty. Moody. He testified at the insanity hearing that he had received a letter from Vice-President Marshall. The latter stated he recalled meeting Mrs. Wurtsbaugh nearly a quarter of a century ago.

At that time she wanted to obtain a divorce from her husband. He had heard of her several times subsequently, and it was his information that she possessed a mania for bringing suits.

Before the Lunacy Commission she was represented by an attorney and had subpoenaed fifteen witnesses, all of whom are prominent local citizens. She asked Judge Reeves to appoint a jury if they were present. All answered to their names.

"Which do you desire to call first?" asked the court.

"I don't desire to call any of them," was her reply. "I simply wanted to see if they would come."

Mrs. Wurtsbaugh is 53 years old. Since coming here from Tennessee she has been working as a seamstress to earn money to buy food while she looked up the law. Her father and her husband were lawyers, she studied law and was admitted to practice in Indiana. Her specific charge against Vice-President Marshall is that he conspired with Judge Joseph W. Adair of Whitney county, Indiana, and influenced him to deny her application for a bond guaranteeing the payment of alimony.

IN DIMMER LIGHT. Sidney Michkind was sent to the County Jail in default of $1500 bail yesterday afternoon after a hearing in Justice Forbes' court, on the charge of passing worthless checks.

WOMAN ATTORNEY MAY LOSE OFFICE.

APPOINTMENT ILLEGAL, SAYS COUNTY COUNSEL.

Under Civil Service, Rating in Examination Alone Makes Candidate Eligible—Supervisors May Create Deputyship Open Only to Women, to Solve Difficulty.

Those who believed Los Angeles county had the first woman deputy District Attorney in the country will be disillusioned by the discovery that the county has no such officer and, under the law, can have none until the Board of Supervisors creates the position. Miss Litta Belle Hibben, who for a number of months has occupied a position in the District Attorney's office, may be dispossessed of her office, if the ruling of Deputy County Counsel Bishop is followed.

Attorney Margaret Gardner, who took an examination under civil service for the position of deputy District Attorney, and was one of two women on the eligible list, stirred up the controversy. She declared that she should have been given the place, Miss Hibben never having taken the proper examination, although she did successfully pass one for a Superior Court trusteeship, paying more salary than the position she now holds.

After considerable contention on both sides the matter was referred to the County Counsel for a decision. Deputy Bishop stated that there were sufficient and valid reasons for having a woman deputy, but the matter of qualification was one of the points at issue. Under existing laws, the decision declares that, irrespective of sex, the three highest on the civil service list are the only ones that may be considered for appointment.

"If the contention that a woman must be appointed can be sustained, the Board of Supervisors can, by ordinance, provide for the position, and thereupon a list of women only should be properly certified," states Deputy Bishop in his report. This practically nullifies the appointment of Miss Hibben and requires an entirely new examination for candidates for the job.

Dist. Atty. Woolwine refused to discuss the situation, stating that he had acted in good faith and according to instructions received and could give no additional light on the subject.

Miss Hibben views the situation with equanimity. "It is not my fight, but that of the Civil Service Commission, the Board of Supervisors and the District Attorney, as far as I can see," she declared. "I did not seek preferment over any other candidate for the position and took it merely because it was offered me, and I am desirous of securing the experience such a high place would confer."

Long Walks for Police. [New York Times.] Persons living in outlying parts of Jamaica, N. Y., praise a recently established system of police booths, little houses in which patrolmen are always on duty, but the policemen themselves complain because of the long trips from the station to and from the booths.

Several of the booths are far from car lines, and it takes an hour to walk to them when the weather is unpropitious for bicycling.

A booth at Rosedale is five miles from the station, and another at Springfield is four miles away.

A RECORD

The largest issue of The Saturday Evening Post ever published appears today.

It contains 104 pages besides the cover.

This record size is made possible by the greatest volume of advertising ever carried in a single issue—240 columns.

It is not a special issue, built up by special effort. In fact, every one of the issues of the past four weeks and the next three weeks far exceeds in amount of advertising its corresponding issue in 1915.

These increases simply represent the cumulative result of the judgment and experience of leading national advertisers over a period of many years.

We believe that the steady increase in the volume of advertising in The Saturday Evening Post is due to three basic causes:

1. An ever-widening belief in advertising.
2. An ever-growing reliance in The Saturday Evening Post as a vehicle for advertising.
3. A healthy confidence throughout American business.

PURCHASING AGENTS FORM ASSOCIATION.

LOCAL BUYERS WILL JOIN THE NATIONAL SOCIETY.

At Dinner Addressed by Warren C. Kennedy, Fifty Representatives of Large Local Institutions Become Members—To Hold "Long-Distance" Meeting with the East.

With a membership of fifty, which it is expected quickly to increase to 100, the Purchasing Agents' Association of Los Angeles was formed at a dinner held last night at Christopher's, No. 733 South Broadway. The organization is affiliated with the National Association of Purchasing Agents, the headquarters of which are in New York.

The objects are purely educational, including familiarizing the members with the products they buy, securing more uniform purchasing routine and methods, the standardization of specifications and classifications and the gathering and dissemination of data relating to the subject of buying.

Warren C. Kennedy, secretary of the Baker Iron Works, spoke on the benefits of the national association. He cited as an illustration the results which have been obtained in the National Credit Men's Association.

M. L. Morse, purchasing agent of the Southern California Gas Company, presided. He said the idea of the association was to get together and help each other. The day of the swivel chair, purchasing agent has passed. The men must get more in direct touch with the manufacturers, visit the plants and know how things were made.

An organization committee was formed with J. A. Crawford of the General Petroleum Company, chairman; M. L. Morse of the Southern California Gas Company, secretary; and the following members: W. C. Wickersham, Belridge Oil Company; F. Anderson, Llewellyn Iron Works; H. R. Day, Southern Sierras Power Company; W. R. Plue, Los Angeles Ice and Cold Storage Company; C. R. Scranton, Sugar Lima Rock Company; and H. A. Peterson, Riverside Portland Cement Company.

In addition to those mentioned there also were present at the dinner J. W. Harasta, American Petroleum Company; L. P. Burgess, D. & H. Pump and Supply Company; A. R. Foster, California Portland Cement Company and Stewart Nordest, Coast Publishers Supply Company.

On April 13 the new association will have a joint meeting by transcontinental telephone with the New York and Chicago branches of the national organization.

ENGLISH POLICE DOGS. Track Down Thieves and Murderers and Rescue Wounded in War. [St. Joseph News-Press.] English police dogs, of which there are six attached to the Twenty-first flying column of the Russian Red Cross, have proved their worth in many instances on Russian battlefields. In one night near the village of Kute (vicinity of Lovich) these wise animals hunted out in grain fields over which the battle raged, and brought relief to forty-nine wounded men.

The dogs had been brought from London by authorities of the city of Veraya for use in tracking down thieves and murderers, with which the place was infested. Within a few weeks they enabled the police to round up these criminals. One dog, who still retains his English name "Jack," slightly Russified, was several times sent to Moscow, Kiev and Odessa to similarly aid the police of those cities.

In times of inactivity of the troops the dogs are frequently used to convey dispatches from one section of the columns to another and always perform their task with unerring fidelity. During battle, even under heavy fire, they search out the wounded by scent and the sanitars may be certain the man to whom they are led is still alive, since the dogs instinctively ignore the dead. Having found a wounded man the animals will carry his cap or mink back to the sanitars, who follow to the spot. Each animal wears a pair of miniature saddle bags, in which he carries flasks of brandy.

In appearance the dogs resemble the Alsatian or the Irish terrier. An exhibition of man hunting was given for the benefit of the correspondent at headquarters of the First Siberian Corps. A soldier was directed to hide in a clump of bushes two blocks distant in a field. The sanitars released the dog and directed him in the general direction of the spot. After making several wide circles the animal caught the scent and made straight for the hiding place at top speed, returning presently with a glove. The sanitars tucked a small packbag in the middle pocket and away went the dog on his return journey. The sanitars, to carry out the deception, followed and appeared to assist the hiding man while the dog looked on with apparent interest.

GROWERS DENOUNCE CITRUS LEGISLATION.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 30.—Bitter denunciations of the Democratic party and expressions that there will be a sweeping change in the administration this fall were made today by orange and lemon growers throughout San Bernardino county as a result of the announcement in today's press dispatches that Congressman William Kettner has stated that the California delegation has abandoned hope of favorable action by the Ways and Means Committee on his bill to increase the duty on lemons one-half cent per pound to meet foreign competition.

Some Democrats are joining in the protest. According to the growers the refusal of the administration to protect the great California industry was a foregone conclusion and the only way to bring protection to the citrus growers is to bring the Republican party back into power in November.

TWO RATES FOR GAS DEVELOPED.

Corporation's Case Near End at Commission Hearing.

Probable a Sliding Schedule will be Finally Fixed.

Figures Named Regarded Only as Base Estimates.

"Straight artificial gas of 800 British thermal units, 67.18 cents per 1000 cubic feet."

The present 80 per cent. natural and artificial mixture, 800 British thermal units, 74.65 cents per 1000 cubic feet."

These are the figures developed by W. E. Houghton, manager of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, in the rate case before Railroad Commission Edgerton yesterday.

The figures for 1916 British thermal units will be introduced this morning.

These figures, according to those who are best informed in regard to the testimony already introduced, are merely the base rates required to give adequate return upon the engineers' appraisal of the property involved. It is probable, however, that a sliding schedule will finally be fixed, which will result in a much lower average rate to the consumer.

In testifying as to the proper base rate to be charged for the various grades of gas possible to be served, Auditor Houghton reviewed the testimony already introduced, and called attention to the fact that the city, the Commission and the company through their engineers have all introduced practically parallel valuations.

It is also in evidence what the operating expenses of the company are, together with deductions for the earnings made by the company by the sale of briquets and other by-products.

The figures introduced by Mr. Houghton are based also on the outline of Engineer Barker, proper testimony the past two or three days reduced the gas required to serve Los Angeles to a basis of heat units, rather than of thousands of cubic feet.

According to Mr. Houghton, the middle of 1916 will find more than 155,000 active meters in service on the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation's lines. Each of these will require 25,000,000 British thermal units of heat to take care of the annual demand, a total for the system of 3,875,000,000,000 British thermal units.

On this basis the city would require 5,425,000 cubic feet of natural British thermal units gas, or 4,215,750,000 cubic feet of 50 per cent. mixture of natural and artificial gas, for year ending June 30, 1917.

It was testified that the straight artificial gas basis the company's expenses for production, interest on investment and operation cost and depreciation fund, making proper deductions for the sale of by-products, would total $3,778,926.

Under the 50 per cent. mixture of natural and artificial gas, the total requirement in money to carry on the operation of the company and a return of 8 per cent. interest and 4 per cent. depreciation charge on the property, as valued by the three sets of engineers, would be $3,149,305.

When Mr. Houghton finishes his testimony today by the introduction of figures covering natural gas of a minimum 1000 British thermal units the case will be turned over to the city for the introduction of its evidence. It is probable that following this the commission will introduce witnesses, from its auditing department to testify to the operating cost of the company.

HENRY J. PAULY FUNERAL.

Services for Late Prominent Business Man to be Held Tomorrow.

Funeral services for Henry J. Pauly, president of the H. J. Pauly Book-binding Company, 218-221 E. Fourth street, who died Tuesday night at the German Hospital, as a result of an automobile accident, will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the church of Our Lady Queen of the Angels.

Mr. Pauly was a well-known business man of this city. He was born in Milwaukee fifty years ago and came to Los Angeles in 1886. He leaves one son, two brothers and three sisters. Mr. Pauly and his wife were returning from a week-end with their son at Indian Springs on November 22, last year, when their automobile dashed down an embankment and turned turtle.

Mrs. Pauly was thrown from a broken back and was hurried to the hospital, where he remained until his death.

WORLD'S GREATEST CABLE.

Will Raise Fifty-ton Ore Cars from a Cuban Mine.

[Philadelphia Public Ledger:] A section of the largest hoisting cable in the world, made under a new design, withstood a pull of 746,000 pounds in a tension test at Lehigh University recently. The test took place in the Fritz Engineering Laboratory, under direction of the Lehigh civil engineering department.

The cable was designed for use in the Mayari mines in Cuba, of the Spanish-American Iron Company, and will be attached to fifty-ton ore cars operating on an inclined plane of more than a mile, with a grade of 28 per cent.

In addition to the high strength demonstrated in the Lehigh test, the new cable is expected to have superior wearing quality because of its design, which includes six strands of thirty-seven wires, and an independent wire rope center. The John A. Roebeling Sons Company of Trenton manufactured the cable.

PERIL ON AN ISLAND.

Party of Motion-picture People is Reported in Distress on Santa Cruz—Manager Hastening to Charter Boat and Rush the Needed Relief.

According to a telephone message received at San Diego last night by Mr. R. MacKintyre, manager of the Pollock Picture Company of New York, a party of motion-picture actors who came from the East about three weeks ago to take part in a large production by Harry Pollard, are in grave danger on Santa Cruz Island, opposite Santa Barbara.

Mr. MacKintyre said last night that the party, including about twenty-five members of the company, with Marguerite Fisher, the well-known star, left San Diego two weeks ago on the yacht Iva A., which was chartered for the trip to the island. They were expected to return to this city in about a week, but until last night nothing was heard from them.

The message to Mr. MacKintyre came from the captain of a steamer that arrived in San Diego yesterday. The captain said some of the actors had been injured as a result of a recent storm, and that the star, Mr. MacKintyre left early this morning for Santa Barbara, where he will charter a steamer to rush supplies to the relief of the stricken party.

MONROVIA DEFEATS BOND PROPOSITION.

MONROVIA, March 29.—In a hotly contested election here today the $9900 school-bond proposition was defeated, the final vote of 619 being split into 325 yes and 394 no. A two-thirds majority is required to carry the proposition.

The money to pay off outstanding indebtedness against the local school system. Though only about 25 per cent. of the registered voters were polled, there was considerable excitement among the rival factions. Many voters cast their ballots against the bond proposition, it is said, because they were not in sympathy with the present administration.

Workers for and against the bonds combed the city with automobiles in their endeavors to get out the voters.

STUDIES INDIANS.

Scientist from Brazil is Interested in La Brea Fossil Deposits.

Dr. Simoes da Silva, noted biologist and professor of ethnology of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, arrived at the La Brea fossil deposits in the morning yesterday from the East. He represented his nation at the International American Congress recently held in Washington. Dr. Silva was accompanied by a number of his visiting and inspecting various museums in the United States with a view to submitting a report to the Brazilian government upon the La Brea fossil deposits.

Today he will visit the La Brea pits and endeavor to secure several fossil specimens of the by-gone ages for his own collection. He is the owner of the largest private museum in Brazil. For several years he has interested himself in the Brazilian Indians and has been instrumental in securing legislation protecting them from the inroads of the white men, who have sought to exploit them in the labor market.

Indian Art in Cuba. [Philadelphia Public Ledger:] An exploration in Cuba. A valuable collection of pre-Columbian wooden instruments has been found in caves on the island. The discovery was made by an expedition from the University Museum of Philadelphia. For the last three years it has been making investigations in the caves of the island.

The wooden implements are said to be among the most extraordinary finds of American archeology. The instruments are said to be of great value in the study of the life of the Indians.

Many New Playgrounds.

[Boston Transcript:] Four hundred and thirty-two American cities maintained neighborhood playgrounds under the direction of play leaders during the year 1915. During the last two years 116 cities have established playgrounds. The number of new playgrounds established in 1915 was 103. The total number of playgrounds now in operation up to 1915. When the Playground and Recreation Association of America was organized less than ten years ago, only a few of the larger cities ever had summer playgrounds, and many of these were supported by private funds. Now the city of Boston has 103 playgrounds.

VENICE, March 30.—Losing control of a big, five-passenger auto this afternoon, Miss Victoria Wolf ran the car over the sidewalk curb, crashed through a heavily laden fruit-stand and went into a meat shop case of young's market on Broadway avenue.

Beauty is Only Skin Deep.

The ballot box was broken open for the first time by the judges yesterday afternoon, and the heaps of votes that poured forth were splendid evidence of the widespread popularity of the recent campaign enjoyed. Furthermore, it was a mute tale of vigorous enthusiasm.

HIS PLACE IS DOUBLY TAKEN.

Divorced Wife of Pastor Weds Successor in Pulpit.

Curious Romance Crowned with Long Beach Ceremony.

Groom Lecturer at University of California.

A very remarkable love story came to the duty-appointed climax of all well-regulated love stories last evening, when Paul Jordan Smith, a lecturer at the University of California, and Mrs. Sarah Bixby Smith, were united in marriage at the home of Jewell Bixby, a relative of the bride, No. 1485 East Ocean avenue, Long Beach.

In becoming Mrs. Smith's husband, Prof. Smith has doubly taken the place of the divorced Rev. Arthur Mazon Smith, first in his pulpit and in the affections of Mrs. Smith. Prof. Smith is 40 and Mrs. Smith 43, according to the marriage license record. They will reside at No. 38 E. Camino Real, Berkeley, after their honeymoon.

The romance began after Mrs. Smith's first husband, Rev. Arthur Mazon Smith, was forced out of his pastorate a year ago by sensational charges that he had been philandering about the country with a pretty girl of the family, Miss Alice Giffen.

Arthur Mazon Smith, in a long letter to his wife, made certain admissions. He said he had been unfaithful to her, and that he had been unfaithful to her, and that he had been unfaithful to her.

Mrs. Smith, deeply interested in the church, became deeply interested also in his new lecturer. She helped him write his much-discussed book on "The Soul of Woman," and, according to her collaborator, was the inspiration of the volume. The two became engaged, pending the time when the divorce should be issued, but unsuccessfully to keep the betrothal secret.

The secret came out when Mrs. Smith, saying that she could not deny a fact, admitted it, but Smith denied the engagement, later admitting that he had been unfaithful to her.

Mrs. Smith's former romance with Rev. Arthur Mazon Smith began in somewhat the same way. An heiress, Miss Victoria Wolf, ran the car over the sidewalk curb, crashed through a heavily laden fruit-stand and went into a meat shop case of young's market on Broadway avenue.

After her husband's dual life had come to an end, Mrs. Smith found it difficult to find a new home. She was forced to leave her home and go to a new home.

said the fire originated from an overturned pan of burning grease. Other investigators state that neighbors saw Mr. Thompson at the house shortly before the fire. VETERANS CELEBRATE DAY OF APPOMATTOX.

PATRIOTIC SOCIETIES JOIN IN MEMORIAL.

Significance of the Great Battle Told, and the North and South Reunited in a Country of a Single Spirit in Times of Present Crisis.

Appomattox Day was observed by the patriotic societies of Los Angeles last night, when an interesting program was given in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, under the auspices of Roosevelt Camp No. 3, United Spanish War Veterans. Many of the organizations attended in a body, and several were in uniform or regalia.

Sidney A. Butler was chairman, and spoke briefly of the significance of Appomattox Day to not only the veterans of the Civil War, but to the American people, who have learned to love and honor each other.

The main address was delivered by Mrs. O. J. Nave, wife of Chaplain Nave, a sympathetic recital of the battle of Appomattox, and the significance of the battle to the American people, who have learned to love and honor each other.

From the dreams and prayers of the past little by little the human race has been able to crystallize on all its most precious possessions. In thought we can leap from the cave-man of the twentieth century to the modern man of the present.

BROWNING CASE TO JURY TODAY.

Arguments Consumed Hours at Slaying Trial.

Heroism of Dead Defendant Prosecution Thinks.

Witnesses Enemies of Grocer, Says Defense.

An entire day was consumed in arguments for and against the prosecution of the murder of Daniel Browning, Deputy District Attorney, by the jury today in the slaying trial of the defendant, John J. Brown.

This kind of heroism, the prosecution thinks, is the only kind of heroism that counts. It is the heroism of the man who stands up for his principles, even when it costs him his life.

The defense, on the other hand, thinks that the witnesses are enemies of the grocer, and that they are trying to frame him for the murder.

The jury will hear the arguments of both sides today, and will then retire to deliberate on the case.
